What We Do

Permanent Placements

We understand the fundamental dynamics of your organization, job specification, culture and then move onto sourcing, screening, interviewing and selection of the candidate follows to ensure the best fit within the required timeframe.

Interview as a Service

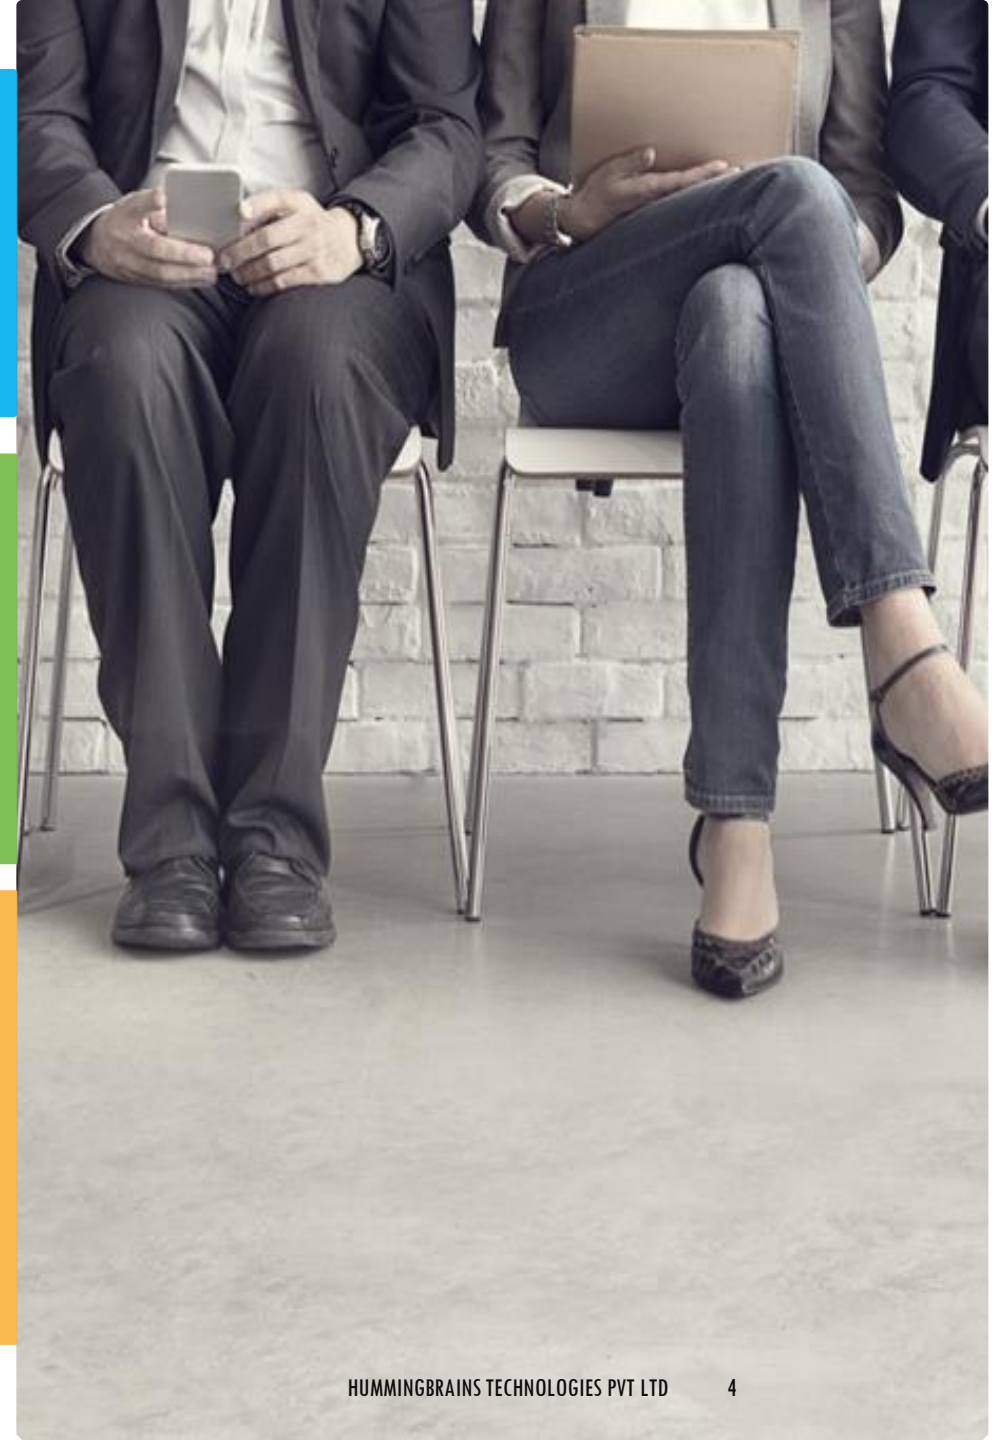

Through this Service, we help our clients by Interviewing technical candidates in a quick manner with cost effective model and at scale. We make sure our Interview panelists match Job Descriptions with your required skills to have a systematic interview process and select the relevant quality candidates.

Staff Augmentation

We offer this service to enhance our existing workforce strategically. We add skilled professionals to our teams when needed, allowing us to quickly scale, access specific expertise, and manage costs efficiently. This approach provides flexibility, enabling us to adapt to changing project requirements without the long-term commitment of hiring permanent staff.

Temporary Staffing

We also provide on-demand manpower resources, considering the specific skill sets you need. Our temporary staffing personnel are dedicated and performance-driven, with expertise across industries. They are treated as permanent employees of 'HummingBrains,' ensuring dependable and qualified staffing services.

Recruitment Process Outsourcing (RPO)

We offer customized recruiting services tailored to your business needs. Our RPO services are efficient, saving you time and energy to focus on other vital areas. Our strategy maximizes your returns and maintains organizational flexibility, backed by our extensive knowledge and years of experience.

Training & Development

In today's fast paced business environment, maintaining the level of competency of the workforce is a constant pursuit for your company. In order to augment the skills and practical knowledge of your workforce, we provide fully customised Training Solutions.
