

VARSHINI

Artisanal Coffee by Women

Single origin, single farm Artisanal premium coffee, handpicked selectively by skilled women "MAHILE" - workers of the AMRUTHAVARSHINI Farm situated in the tranquil Western Ghat mountain range of Chikmagalur, India. The farm dates back to a 100 years.

AMRUTHAVARSHINI - "Rain of immortal nectar" - has been in the hands of a woman farmer for the past 20 years. She has meticulously applied and refined innovative Post-Harvest Coffee Processes to heighten and deepen bouquets of flavours and sensory experiences in sustainably grown coffee. The coffee is shade grown at heights over 3600 feet under a panoramic panoply of wild trees, with wild life and exotic bird life co-existing peacefully with the farmer and her family.

VARSHINI

Artisanal Coffee by Women

VARSHINI is presented as a coffee by women for all those who delight in discovering complex flavour notes in a clean cup of coffee.

VARSHINI - originating from the Sanskrit word for 'showers' - is the name of the "Rain Goddess" in India, and, by its very name, honours the intrinsic, skilful and nurturing role of the women and water in the journey of coffee.

Sustainable Farm Practices

Slow dried offerings:

Naturals

Washed

Honeys

Email: varshini.coffee@gmail.com

Phone: +91 98453 30304

Printed on Coffee Husk paper, from upcycling a processing by-product of coffee. 100% sustainable plant paper which reduces waste, saves trees, and protects the environment.

VARSHINI

Artisanal Coffee by Women

Single origin, single farm Artisanal premium coffee, handpicked selectively by skilled women "MAHILE" - workers of the AMRUTHAVARSHINI Farm situated in the tranquil Western Ghat mountain range of Chikmagalur, India. The farm dates back to a 100 years.

AMRUTHAVARSHINI - "Rain of immortal nectar" - has been in the hands of a woman farmer for the past 20 years. She has meticulously applied and refined innovative Post-Harvest Coffee Processes to heighten and deepen bouquets of flavours and sensory experiences in sustainably grown coffee. The coffee is shade grown at heights over 3600 feet under a panoramic panoply of wild trees, with wild life and exotic bird life co-existing peacefully with the farmer and her family.

VARSHINI

Artisanal Coffee by Women

VARSHINI is presented as a coffee by women for all those who delight in discovering complex flavour notes in a clean cup of coffee.

VARSHINI - originating from the Sanskrit word for 'showers' - is the name of the "Rain Goddess" in India, and, by its very name, honours the intrinsic, skilful and nurturing role of the women and water in the journey of coffee.

Sustainable Farm Practices

Slow dried offerings:

Naturals

Washed

Honeys

Email: varshini.coffee@gmail.com

Phone: +91 98453 30304

Printed on Coffee Husk paper, from upcycling a processing by-product of coffee. 100% sustainable plant paper which reduces waste, saves trees, and protects the environment.